Males 885 above 6-yr-old, Females 882 above 6-yr-old, Boys 253* under 6, Girls 286* under 6, Total 2306*.

This list was taken some weeks ago in the course of catechizing. The number may be a few above but none below 2306. The great increase of late seems mostly owing to the return of men from the army and to inoculation - Archd. McColl, Tiriy, Sept. 29th 1787.

Abstract 1792

Kintyre		6,130
Mull and Morven [omitting Broloss]*		4,568
Tiry		2,464
Argyll	about	500
Town and Parish of Inveraray		1,832
Roseneath		350
Campbell	about	100
Total in 1792		15,942 (15,944)

 A pencil note written probably circa 1792 opposite to the Mull and Morven figure – Tobermory, Salen, Aros, etc. should be counted in comparison. It should be noted that another census was compiled by the 5th Duke in 1792. The above Abstract was inscribed in the MS book used for the census of 1779 for comparison (Ed.).*
